That committee shall thoroughly review the applicant's qualifications and present its recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Board shall have the sole right to approve the applicant's qualifications and nominate the applicant for membership. Less than a simple majority affirmative vote by the Board shall disqualify the applicant for membership at that time.
- b. The names of candidates who are nominated by the Board shall be announced in writing to all voting members at least one (1) month prior to the next scheduled business meeting.
- c. Voting shall be by a majority vote during the Business Meeting of the society. The New Member Applicants will be presented to the Board of Directors for initial approval at the Board Meeting prior to the Business Meeting and then to the membership, at the Business meeting, for any further discussion, voting and induction into the society.

3.4.0 Severance of Membership. Membership in the Society may be revoked or terminated for unethical, immoral, or dishonorable conduct or loss of license, diploma or board certification. Each case shall be considered by the Board of Directors prior to revocation of membership. The member involved shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board. At the conclusion of the hearing, the decision of the Board shall be final.

3.5.0 Suspension of Membership. The following shall constitute grounds for suspension of membership:

- a. Nonpayment of required dues after two years. Dues statements shall be mailed annually with the third and final statement sent by certified mail. The final statement will include information to the effect that if payment is not received within 30 days, membership in the Society will be automatically changed to inactive member status.
- b. Suspension may be reversed by action of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICIALS

4.1.0 Officers. The officers of the Society shall be the President, President-Elect, Past President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Scientific Program Chair. They shall perform the usual duties attendant to their respective offices as outlined in the rules and regulations. All officers shall serve until their successors have been elected and installed in office. The President will serve a term of one year. The office of the President shall alternate between Otolaryngology and Neurosurgery with a representative from the category of "Other" to be selected every fifth year. If an appropriate candidate for the office of the President cannot be identified by the Nominating Committee in the "Other" category membership, the Board of Directors may vote to approve "skipping" the fifth year for that cycle and proceeding with a new cycle of alternating Otolaryngology and Neurosurgery. The President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the Presidency. The Vice-President shall run the Board of Directors meeting in the case of the President's absence. The Vice-President shall assist in meeting site and time selection, program planning, and attend the NASBS Board of Directors Meetings. The Secretary and Treasurer shall serve for a term of three years. The Scientific Program Chair will be appointed by the President and be in charge of planning the Annual Meeting. He or she will serve a one year term. No officer shall serve more than one full term in the same office.

4.2.0 Board of Directors. Control of the Society shall be vested in a Board of Directors representing a balance of the various scientific fields represented by the Society. The Board of Directors shall govern and manage the affairs of the Society in accord with the purposes and requirements of the bylaws, rules and regulations of the Society and in conformity with the laws governing its incorporation. The Board of Directors shall consist of the officers of the Society and up to 12 Directors-at-Large.

4.3.0 Directors-at-Large. The Directors-at-Large shall be nominated and elected by the members of the Society at the annual business meeting. The Directors shall be comprised of an equal number of otolaryngology-head and neck surgeons and neurosurgeons and the remainder from related disciplines. Each Director shall be elected for a staggered term of three years.

4.4.0 Advisory Board. An advisory board, consisting of past presidents of the Society shall attend Board of Directors meeting and function as advisors to the Board. Each past president will serve on the Advisory Board for a total of five years. With the exception of the immediate past president, members of the Advisory Board shall have no voting rights at the Board of Directors meetings in their advisory capacity.

4.5.0 Executive Director. The Management Company will appoint an Executive Director to maintain records, take minutes, perform administrative tasks and run the society as per the bylaws and as necessary. He or she will have no voting privileges.

4.6.0 Vacancy. All vacancies occurring in any office, unless otherwise provided for in the bylaws, shall be filled by active members nominated by the President for the unexpired term and confirmed by a majority of the Board of Directors. Members filling such vacancies may be subsequently elected to that office. If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the President-Elect shall succeed to the Presidency. If a vacancy occurs in the office of President-Elect, this position shall be filled by nomination. All vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled for a term continuing to, but not beyond the next annual business meeting. Vacancies shall be filled by an affirmative vote by a majority of the Board of Directors following nomination by the President.

4.7.0 Meetings of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors of the NASBS shall convene a minimum of twice per year, once at the annual meeting of the Society and once in the Summer. The second meeting can take place at the Summer Course but is not required to do so. Seven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the President or through a written request by any five members of the Board. Written notice shall be forwarded to each member of the Board not less than thirty days prior to any meeting.

4.8.0 Voting. In case of a tie in voting of the Board of Directors, the President shall cast the deciding vote. Any action of the Board may be modified or overruled by a three-quarters vote of voting members present at a business meeting, provided that the President has been notified of the objection at least one month prior to the business meeting. The President may call for a ballot by mail.

ARTICLE V. ELECTIONS

5.1.0 Nominations. A report of nominations for officers shall be sent by the nominating committee to the Executive Committee not less than forty-five days before the annual business meeting. The Executive Director shall advise the membership in writing of the nominations not less than thirty days before the annual business meeting. Any five members of the Society may place in nomination the name of a candidate eligible for office by submitting their name to the Executive Director no less than thirty days before the annual business meeting. The Executive Director will advise each member in writing of such additional nominations at the annual business meeting.

5.2.0 Voting. Each voting member of the Society present at the annual business meeting shall have the right to vote on all proposed candidates. Nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event of a tie the President shall cast the deciding vote.

ARTICLE VI. MEETINGS

6.1.0 Time and Place of Annual Meeting. An annual scientific and business meeting shall be held at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors. The Society shall be responsible for the scientific, social and financial aspects of the annual meeting as approved by the Board of Directors. A budget for the succeeding annual meeting must be presented to and approved by the Board when the Annual Budget is circulated for approval. The meeting location will be decided upon at least 2 years in advance and the site and time will be suggested by the President, President-Elect and the Vice President with the Board of Directors approval.

6.2.0 Notice of Meetings. Each member shall be informed of the time and place of the meeting by written notice at least ninety days prior to the meeting.

6.3.0 Manner of Acting. Roberts Rules of Order governing deliberative bodies shall prevail at all meetings of the Society unless otherwise provided by the bylaws.

6.4.0 Order of Business. Unless changed by a majority vote of the members present, the order of business at the annual business meeting shall be as follows:

- a. Reading or approval of the minutes of the preceding business meeting.
- b. Report of the Board of Directors.
- c. Report of the Treasurer.
- d. Report of standing committees.
- e. Election of officers, directors and members of the nominating committee.
- f. New business.
- g. Appointment of special committees by the President.

ARTICLE VII. FEES

7.1.0 Fees and Dues. An initiation fee and annual dues shall be established by the Board of Directors with the approval by two-thirds of members present at the first regular business meeting. All annual dues shall be payable before the regular annual meeting.

7.2.0 Assessment or Changes. The Board of Directors shall have the power to impose special assessments or changes in dues with the approval by two-thirds of members present at any subsequent business meeting.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

8.1.0 Amendments. The constitution and bylaws may be amended at any business meeting of the Society by a two-thirds vote of voting members present at the meeting. The President or Board of Directors may ask for a written ballot of all members. A written copy of a proposed amendment shall be filed with the Secretary at least forty-five days before the meeting and notice thereof to be sent in writing to all voting members thirty days before the next business meeting.

ARTICLE IX. REPRESENTATIVES

9.1.0 Representatives. The Society may maintain standing representatives, delegates or members to other organizations or committees as may be deemed advisable by the President and the Board of Directors. Each representative shall file a report of the activities of his or her organization or committee with the Secretary within thirty days after a meeting of that organization or committee. In the absence of a formal meeting of that organization or committee, an annual report will suffice; reports shall be filed at least thirty days before the annual meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE X. AUXILIARY

10.1.0 Auxiliary. An auxiliary composed of spouses or members of the Society may be established. Their duties may include reception of guests, arrangement of necessary social functions, assistance in registration of members and guests, and other specific duties as may be requested by the Board of Directors.
